OSEKI
MARA
CAMP

WWW.OSEKIMAASAIMARACAMP.COM

Why choose us

We are a small community based Eco camp, run by one Dutch young woman named Anne & an original Maasai Warrior & Maasai Community chief named Shinka Parmuat, also known as Dennis.

You might start thinking, why the name Dennis? But each Maasai is born with 2 names. One part of their tribe & one English or biblical one. But enough said, Let us further introduce Shinka who is a young community leader from the Siana/ Nkineji area, passionate about people, wildlife conservation & community work aiming to guide the next generation in his area to success and more stability - all through tourism.

Shinka knows how to balance both modern life & Maasai culture - steering the next generation to new hopes, connections & prosperity.

Together with my team of experienced young Maasai men & women we like to welcome you at our camp, in a beautiful open location only 5 minutes from the Masai Mara National Reserve. We aim to provide our guests an authentic culture & natural experience in which seeing things "through the eyes of a local" that in this a Maasai is what sets us apart and creates an unforgettable journey for you into the wild!

A large herd of wildebeest is gathered on a muddy bank and in a shallow river. The animals are densely packed, with many standing on the bank and others wading in the water. The background shows a steep, eroded bank of reddish-brown soil. The overall scene captures the intensity and scale of the Great Migration.
